

RTI Biologics: A Timeline of Innovation

Tutogen Medical GmbH
TUTOGEN

- Tutogen Medical forms in Germany

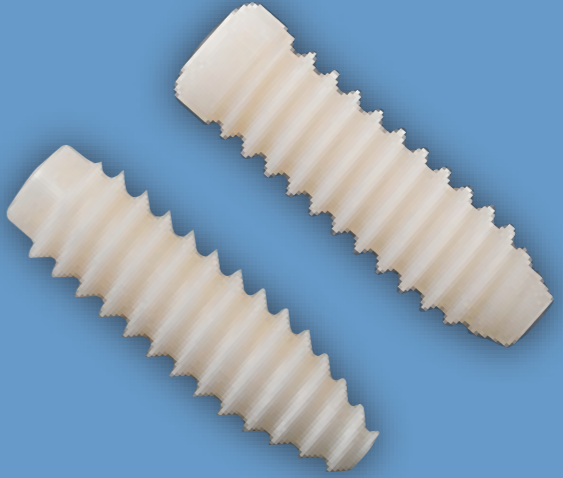

- Regeneration Technologies, Inc. (RTI) spins off from the University of Florida Tissue Bank
- RTI awarded a patent for MD-Series precision-tooled bone dowel
- Tutogen publishes a Tutoplast® process case study in Germany (first published case of such a procedure)
- RTI launches its first DBM paste

TUTOPLAST

- Tutogen introduces Tutoplast Processed Dermis

- The New England Journal of Medicine mentions RTI's BioCleanse process as a good example of sterilization
- RTI announces expansion of BioCleanse process for soft tissue sterilization
- Half a million BioCleanse implants; ZERO incidence of infection

- RTI launches a line of xenograft implants

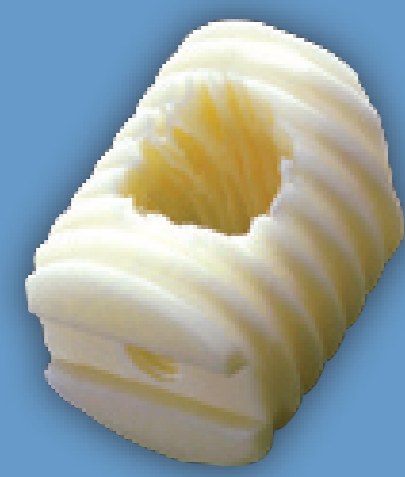

RTI | BIOLOGICS™

- Regeneration Technologies, Inc. and Tutogen Medical complete merger to create combined company RTI Biologics, Inc.

- Tutogen Medical, Inc. opens headquarters in Alachua, Florida

- University of Florida Tissue Bank introduces the first allograft to be precision tooled, a threaded cortical dowel

BIOCLEANSSE
TISSUE STERILIZATION PROCESS

- RTI begins using BioCleanse® Tissue Sterilization Process on hard tissue allografts
- RTI holds its Initial Public Offering and is listed on the NASDAQ (RTIX)
- American Stock Exchange lists Tutogen Medical (TTG)

- RTI accredited by the American Association of Tissue Banks

- RTI opens a state-of-the-art, pharmaceutical grade facility in Alachua, Florida
- RTI announces development of Next-Generation BioCleanse tissue sterilization process, using multiple chambers to allow tissue from a single donor to be sterilized efficiently
- Tutogen begins the European marketing of Tutomesh® for hernia repair

- RTI receives its first 510 (k) clearance for a xenograft implant

- Launch of BioCleanse Meniscus
- Launch of BTB Select® implant for sports medicine procedures

- Launch of first human ready-to-use paste
- Launch of Fresh-stored Osteochondral Implant

RTI | BIOLOGICS™